

Opposite: Bridesmaids with minds of their own will relish the chance to choose the most flattering style among Josephine Sasso's sage knit jersey tops. From left: Spaghetti straps with a scoop neck; halter top; and sleeveless jewel neck ($89 each). Sasso's taffeta wrap ball skirts ($596) complete the contemporary, sophisticated look. Pearl stud earrings ($22) are from Carolee.

Above: This pair rests easy in lavender silk-chiffon dropped-waist dresses with cowl necks by Serafina ($425). It's a versatile style that compliments many figures and suits a day or evening wedding. Carolee earrings, as before. At right: Coming up roses... and rice flowers and Italian carnations. "I love bouquets that are dense, compact and full of color," says New York floral designer Isabelle Bosquet, who created the precious arrangements that appear throughout.
