

launched a formal collection in 1986. Her creations are shown at private trunk shows in such tony towns as Nantucket, Southampton, Greenwich, Newport, Palm Beach, Lake Forest, and Grosse Pointe. Today, she has representatives in key cities around the country to manage growing sales. Sasso attends these shows whenever possible to provide her personal input. She also has published a catalogue and, in 1987, opened her first retail boutique at 226 East 78th Street in Manhattan. A

Clockwise from top left: Herb-crusted tuna served on a Gorham sterling silver platter. Silk poppy print top and fishtail skirt. Miniature pineapple filled with mango mousse, topped with blackberries, served on a Bailey, Banks & Biddle gold charger plate. Risotto cakes topped with shaved truffles served on a Hamilton and Deisinger sterling silver platter.