

GREAT SCOTS

Josephine Sasso goes stark-raving plaid, crafting tartan—a traditional pattern turned trendy—into a duet of dresses for bridesmaids. Designed in two styles—strapless and separates—these silhouettes suit a variety of body types and fashion preferences. Go figure! THIS PAGE: Black-and-white wool tartan full wrap skirt with frayed hem, about $596, and black knit jersey tank, about $89. Diamond necklace, Fred Leighton. OPPOSITE: Strapless black-and-white wool tartan dress with frayed hem, about $567. Diamond necklace, Fred Leighton. Put a feather in your bridesmaid's cap with this black plumed headband by Caroline Morris. About $235, available at Barneys New York. For details, turn to Shopping Guide.

BUDDING BEAUTIES

Adding softness and warmth to an attendant's look: a bountiful bouquet of flowers, her most romantic accessory. If your bridesmaids are walking the walk in black and white, you've got two dramatic choices: Maintain the stark spirit with luscious white miniature amaryllis (opposite) or spin the color wheel with a multicolored mix of ranunculus (right).
